KALA PHOOL (KP) is an arts and creativity development and delivery organisation with its core focus on making the arts accessible to all. Based in the South East and West Midlands it creates, manages and delivers culturally diverse collaborative and partnership projects regionally, nationally and internationally with an emphasis on the Community and Voluntary sector. Our principle aims are to:

- Develop, manage and deliver grass root, community and individual events, projects, research, innovative new work regionally, nationally and internationally.
- Develop, manage and deliver high quality partnership projects in collaboration with community and voluntary organisations, statutory agencies, local and regional authorities, and individuals (regionally, nationally and internationally).
- Develop education, training and social inclusion within culturally diverse communities (regionally, nationally and internationally).

Becoming a Member of KP requires commitment to our values, aims and objectives as stated in the Constitution.
